CITY SCHOOL BOARD.

The city school board met last night, President Smith in the chair. The board voted to increase the salaries of all the teachers, with some diminution. A bill of Mr. Stockert of Washington of $120,000 school registrars was ordered to be paid, as were bills of H. W. French, J. M. Hill and others. An order was made that wherever free books were furnished they should be labeled "the property of the school board." It was voted to let the books be sold, but to be returned to the teacher. The books were authorized to be purchased on school-houses and furniture if they could be gotten at low prices.

The board also voted the addition of the board to the fact that the school children who had made application and were as yet unable to obtain places in the schools. Fifteen white boys and thirty-seven white girls, besides a number of colored applicants, were on the list. The school director, however, was not able to find a place for them, nearly all the school houses except those at Washington School had outlived its capacity, was decrepit with old age and would soon be unable to stand upright. Additional school money was found merely necessary for the efficiency of the schools.

THE ALEXANDRIA LIBRARY.

The school board committee having charge of the project to reopen the Alexandria library room, which consists of Messrs. Hobt, Atchison, Thomas Lebedean and Wm. F. Carne, reported to the board last night asking that the board invite Mr. John H. Zimmerman and Mr. A. G. Ulmer to be associated with the committee for the furtherance of the project, and the suggestion was unanimously agreed to. It was stated that the first object to be attained was the opening of a comfortable room for the gathering of quiet young people at night, and the addition of a number of books and the shelves of the Alexandria library of cyclopedias and works of reference, which would be useful to the teachers of public schools and others and to begin the renewal of the library in this way.

RECORDED.

Young Mr. Lane, son of Representative Lane of Indiana, a student of St. John's Academy, who was thought to have his leg broken in the recent foot ball match between Georgetown College and St. John's Academy, has entirely recovered, his injuries proving to have been only a strain of the muscles.

CHRISTMAS HOLIDAY.

The school board has at the suggestion of the superintendent of schools directed that the Christmas holidays of the public schools shall begin at the close of the schools on the 23d instant and end on Monday, January 4, 1892.

The Death Record.

During the twenty-four hours ending at noon today burial permits were issued from the health office for the following:

White, Anton. Gubis, 45 years, cerebral softening; Eliza Sullivan, 6 years, pneumonia; Paul C. Young, 20, consumption; John F. Flynn, 41 years, pulmonary congestion; Richard Cottier, 2 days, premature death; infant of George F. and Mary Pohlers, 8 hours, premature birth; Julius Bouldin, 3 years, marmasmus; Eddie Blair, 4 months, pneumonia; Moses Grimes, 1 year, pneumonia; Ernest H. Moore, 3 months, bronchitis; Susan V. Holmstedt, 52 years, apoplexy; Madison Smith, 54 years, cerebral hemorrhage.

Mrs. H. Hard was the Donor.

To the Editor of The Evening Star:

In justice to a worthy and generous lady will you please correct the statement made in your last evening's issue that "Some unknown friend has sent to President Hankin a book of William Lloyd Garrison." By the personal solicitation of a late professor the gift was made through the secretary of Howard University by Mrs. Henry Villard, the accomplished daughter of the author of "The Voice of the Negro," and the well-known railroad operator of New York, a lady who inherits her father's sympathy for progress and interest in the colored race. C. H. A. B.

Both Held for the Grand Jury.

The case of Lewis Williams and Edward Kilgore, the colored men arrested on a charge of highway robbery in the county between Ivy City and Montello, as published in THE STAR at the time, was tried in the Police Court today. The case was investigated by Policeman Rogers and the late Policeman Slack. Milton Vane, a white boy, was complainant, and several of his companions were in court as witnesses.

The boys had been out gambling and were on the road when, when their charge, the defendant, made them. One of the boys, who was charged, accused the Vane boy of having shot him with a pistol some time previous to that meeting, struck him with a piece of iron and took his gun.

Judge Miller held the prisoners in $500 bail for the action of the grand jury.

A Rough Joke on a Special Policeman.

Several nights ago one of the men who wore a badge and drew his salary from a private firm as a special policeman was the victim of a practical joke. He was on night duty at the time and under his care was a quantity of valuable property. During the night he made his bed in the boiler, where he was warm and soon fell asleep. Some other men about the works found him in his comfortable place and they proceeded to black his face. After success in making him look like a ghost, the jokers, who knew his badge, hat and other police equipments, and it is unnecessary to state that was his last night's service at that place.
